THE CHAMPS BEATEN.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 19.—Callahan's pitching and Merritt's batting were much for the crippled leviathan to-day. Callahan allowed only three hits, while Merritt's home run and triple brought in three of the four runs credited to Chicago. The tie game of yesterday will not be played, the tie being finished at 5:55 in favor of Brooklyn. Beck, from Toledo, played his first game in a Brooklyn uniform, and felled well, but could not bat. Score:

THE "KID" ON TOP.

McCoy Regains Lost Laurels by Beating Big O'Donnell Decisively—The Contest Was an Easy One for the Howler.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Kid McCoy had very little difficulty in getting away with Steve O'Donnell in the arena of the Broadway Athletic Club tonight. Despite O'Donnell's advantage of height, reach and weight, McCoy went to him gradually, without taking any careless liberties and soon had his big adversary in trouble.

O'Donnell never landed a good blow on McCoy, while the Kid was gaining ground in each succeeding round. His left was always getting to the face, head or wind and O'Donnell was puzzled. He staggered frequently and in the sixth round went down from a left swing. He remained down as long as the rules allowed, but it was all up with the big fellow. McCoy went after him with swinging lefts and rights and soon felled him with another hard left swing, from the effects of which he was unable to recover until counted out. Steve had to be assisted to his feet by the referee, while McCoy walked to the corner smiling and without a mark.

The betting opened at 3 to 1 on McCoy, but these odds were increased to 10 to 1 with very few takers.

Every inch of the vast seating space in the club house was occupied half an hour after the doors were opened, and hundreds of persons thronged the street in front of the building, eagerly crowding in for standing room.

The club house was opened, there has never been such a large attendance.

The men were introduced to go twenty rounds at catch weights and both received a hearty reception.

Round 1. They sparred at long range for some minutes. Steve tried two lefts for the body, but failed to land. McCoy sent two lefts to the face, and landed a light left swing to the jaw. Then he sent a similar blow to the chin without getting anything back from the big fellow. O'Donnell was entirely on the defensive and McCoy amused the crowds by giving Steve three backhand slaps on the face with his left and put it twice on the nose lightly before the bell.

Round 2. McCoy led a light left to the face and then tried a right swing which Steve blocked. After some more sparring McCoy feinted with his left and threw his right over, but only landed on the big fellow's shoulder. O'Donnell with his advantage of reach and height was unable to land on the Kid, who brought the blood from Steve's nose with a smart left rap.

Left and right to the jaw, and O'Donnell so safe that Steve could not reach him.

Round 3. One hundred to twenty was now offered on McCoy without any takers. The Kid opened with a light left to the neck and tried for the body but was short. They exchanged light blows on the head, and then McCoy shot his right to the body. He followed quickly with a hard left swing on the jaw and O'Donnell staggered to the ropes. O'Donnell seemed utterly at a loss what to do and McCoy kept jabbing him with lefts on the face and neck until the gong interfered.

Round 6. McCoy opened with left and right swings to the jaw. Two left jabs to the body made O'Donnell stagger. He came to the center and the Kid sent him reeling and kept slamming Steve around the ring with lefts and rights. O'Donnell went down from a left swing and took the limit to get up. McCoy rushed at him as soon as he arose and landed on him at will. Jabs in the stomach brought O'Donnell down to McCoy's height, and then the Kid sailed in with left and right on the jaw. Donnell was bleeding profusely from the nose and mouth and was groggy. McCoy finally put him down with a left swing on the jaw and O'Donnell was counted out. Time of round two minutes and forty-eight seconds.

After the men had returned to their dressing rooms, McCoy said:

"I will put $1,000 to-morrow to meet Bob Fitzsimmons for the title of middle-weight champion of the world at 153 pounds. My money will remain up for thirty days and should Fitzsimmons ignore my debt, I will claim this title and withdraw my money, after which I will challenge Fitzsimmons at catch weights. This ought to make him come to fight. He is inside fighting any one. If he fails to defend the middle-weight championship, and I claim it, I will defend it against all comers, negroes barred, at 153 pounds."

Billy Needham, late of St. Paul, and Jim McKeever, of Philadelphia, sparred a ten round draw before the big bout.

The Ohio division, L. A. W., furnishes free to each member a copy of the Ohio road book, bound in flexible morocco, one of the most valuable road books ever issued. It contains a map of each county, showing all streams, railroads and pikes, with a larger map of the state, showing the main roads, railroads and streams, also descriptive matter on each county, giving routes and distances on all through roads. This road book alone is worth all it costs to join the league. It sells to non-league riders for $2.

The following rules of the road are worthy the consideration of all wheelmen:

When meeting riders, pedestrians or vehicles keep to the right. When passing them keep to the left. When turning corners to the left keep to the outside of the street. When turning corners to the right,

Preparations for the street fair to be held here next week, are being pushed rapidly. The projectors of the enterprise have met with much encouragement from merchants, business men and citizens generally and there is every indication that the fair will draw many strangers to town and be liberally patronized. The U. R. K. of P. boys, under whose auspices it will be held, have worked hard and secured a number of novel and attractive features and are deserving of success. It will open with an extensive parade.

Mr. George Walters, of this city, yesterday received a telegram announcing the adjournment of the East Ohio M. E. conference, which has been in session at Alliance, O., for the past week, and stating that Rev. E. A. Simons, of Warren, O., had been assigned to the pastorate of the First M. E. church here, as successor to Rev. O. W. Holmes, who has served the full five years limit as pastor of the Bellaire church. Dr. Holmes has been made presiding elder of the Steubenville district.

It is reported that the East Ohio conference assigned Rev. Austin Wilson, the pastor of the South Bellaire M. E. church, to the Clarion charge. The name of Mr. Wilson's successor at the South Bellaire church could not be learned.

Mt. Monal Lodge, No. 53, A. F. & A. M., held a banquet at Turner hall last night. Thomas E. Koma, of Homestead, Pa., delivered an address, a cake walk was held and dancing was indulged in.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. and the Loyal Temperance Legion will not be held to-morrow afternoon, owing to the temperance convention to be held in Martin's Ferry on that day.

Bellaire Lodge, No. 419, B. P. O. E., will hold a meeting at their hall at 8 o'clock this evening to finally settle their proposed building project. A full attendance of members is requested.

BRIDGEPORT HAPPENINGS.

Events of a Day in the Town at the End of the Bridge.

The Bridgeport correspondent of the Evening News last evening again tries to deny the articles published in Saturday's Intelligencer and make his bluff for "accident" purposes good, concerning the accident that befell the young lady and the attempt at robbery. In his story last evening he compares the reliability of the two papers and the Intelligencer wants no better recommendation than the one given, again trying to deny the two truths that this paper published Saturday morning. Yesterday's Intelligencer says both can be believed and the correspondent of this paper would do so if desired. If not true, why did not the News correspondent, while leisurely enjoying a quiet game in a building on Bridge street, when seen by a representative of this paper in this city yesterday, ask for the proof. The correspondent of this paper still stands ready to prove that both are true and correct and true, and will place $10 or $25, or more, if desired, in the hands of some reliable person, to make his claim good. "He who makes a bluff and makes it good, is a genius, but he who makes a bluff and does not back it, is a coward."

The marriage of Thomas Griffith and Miss Maggie O'Hara, both well known young people of this city, occurred at St. Anthony's church yesterday morning at 7:30 o'clock, with nuptial mass, the Rev. Father Coffey officiating. An elegant wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents immediately after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Griffith will make their future home in Kirkwood.

A letter was received in this city yesterday from Father Weiland, who is making a tour through the old country, dated Havre, France, September 8. In his letter he states that he is enjoying the best of health and expected to be in Naples yesterday, to attend the ceremony of the Inauguration of St. Januarius.

This city evidently is not to be outdone in any manner, way, shape or form. Monday evening they received a new patrol wagon, which cost the city the round sum of $125.

The firm of Koehline Bros., ice dealers, of Steubenville, have sold their ice business to Toronto capitalists. B. S. Pope is one of the members of the new firm.

A representative of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League gave a stereopticon entertainment at the First M. E. church last evening, to a well filled house.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a chicken supper at the church Friday evening, from 5 until 8 o'clock.

Miss Minnie Davis and Alice Maria returned yesterday from a few days' visit with relatives at Portland.

Milton McConaughy is raising his house in Kirkwood, and making some other needed improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Schick went to Woodfield yesterday, to attend the wedding of a nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lytle, of Powhatan, are the guests of relatives on Pike street.

G. B. O'Kelley leaves to-day for Oakland, Md., to spend two or three weeks hunting.

Dr. Driggs and Mayor Nollinger were in Sistersville yesterday on business.

Mrs. Frank Bagger, of Pittsburgh, is the guest of Mrs. William Scott.

BLIND MEN'S STRIKE OVER.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19.—After a strike lasting six weeks the blind broom makers to-day returned to their work at the Pennsylvania working home for blind men. There are 59 of them, the other 50 having previously gone back. The strike was inaugurated as a protest against the methods of Superintendent Hall, of the institution, whose discharge was demanded. The blind men also asked an increase in wages. They were granted the latter concession, but Superintendent Hall is retained pending an investigation of the charges against him.

Hunter Killed His Friend.

FRANKLIN, Pa., Sept. 19.—While stooping over behind some bushes looking for bees, George Hollenbeck stuck his bare head up just enough for Benjamin George, a neighbor, to see a tuft of hair. George was hunting woodcock, and mistaking the tuft of hair for a bird, he fired. Hollenbeck leaped high in the air and fell dead before George could reach his side. Hollenbeck leaves a large family. George is nearly distracted.

Yesterday's News From Marshall County's Chief City.

The Marshall county bar at a meeting held yesterday afternoon, passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Marshall county bar respectfully recommend that Gov. George W. Atkinson appoint Judge Thayer Melvin as judge of the First Judicial district, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Joseph R. Paul.

The resolution was signed by nearly all the members of the Marshall county bar.

At a special session of the county court held yesterday the report of the committee, composed of J. L. McMeichen, W. M. Riggs and B. F. Hodgman, recommending that the Narrows road be paved from the terminus of the contract already made to the upper end of the Narrows, a distance of 1,800, was adopted. The committee also recommended that the road be paved to Jim's Run as soon as the finances of the county would warrant it. When this is completed there will be a solid brick road from North Wheeling to Glendale.
